

THE WORLD DIPLOMATIC ACADEMY

The WORLD DIPLOMATIC ACADEMY is structured at different levels to respond effectively to the needs of concrete and effective action in the different areas it addresses and to operationalize its global, regional and sectoral presence.

THE HONORARY COMMITTEE

The Honorary Committee of the Academy is made up of prestigious and recognized personalities who honor the Academy with essentially moral support in its action, its ambition to put modern diplomacy into perspective and to propose operational adaptations while the consequences of the Covid-19 pandemic represent a real revolution for international relations.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees is made up of several personalities, including its President who is also President of the IUHEI Crans Montana Institute.

The Board is advising the President in making all decisions, including those concerning the daily management of the Academy, the endorsement and implementation of the Strategic Council's proposals, the choice and definition of the role of the people making up its bodies and those associated with its activities and operational missions.

THE WORLD DIPLOMATIC ACADEMY

THE DIPLOMATIC COUNCIL

The Academy's Diplomatic Council is made up of Academicians who are high-profile, respected and competent personalities, occupying or having occupied eminent positions in a government, diplomacy, an international organization, a major company or civil society. Its members are invited and appointed by the Board of Directors.

The Academic Council can, on a subsidiary basis, be organized at national, regional or sectorial levels.

The members of the Academic Council get involved according to their affinities, their choice and their skill in the operational activities of the Academy, in particular intervention missions, meetings and negotiations.

They are welcome to make any proposal for action or intervention to the Board of Directors and suggest missions in which they can get involved.

THE ACADEMY'S AMBASSADORS

The Academy's Ambassadors are outstanding and influential personalities from the public and private worlds who provide decisive support to the activities of the Academy.

These Ambassadors enjoy a prestigious position in the Organization and its visual and institutional communication.

They can be appointed to

- create, maintain and develop the relations of the Academy with governmental authorities and / or the business world.
- create and take responsibility for the activities of a "Chapter" of the Academy, national or linked to a business, finance or industry sector.

THE CHAPTERS OF THE ACADEMY

The Academy creates, when it deems it appropriate, national, regional or sectorial Chapters which remain, for their operation, in the letter and in the spirit of a decentralization of its activities.

Each element relating to the creation, organization and operation of Chapters is subject to detailed prior agreement and possible delegations.
